So Paul is admonishing Timothy to focus on the gospel as taught by Paul to the eternal benefit of the hearers and not be distracted by any lesser temporal concerns. It was October in New York City. If you are not converted, pray do not pretend that you are.

Christela, I just realized that I didn't address all of your points. A common practice of major Christian denominations is to hire only those ministers who are willing to preach what the denomination approves—regardless of whether it agrees with the Bible. You talk about the law being temporary over and over but every time you quote a scripture it comes from the apostle Paul

I am glad that you found this article beneficial in your studies. If a verse cleaves, how do you rightly divide it?
