Some tips to walking the Pilgrim's Route safely: Most importantly you must work around the tide times so check the safe crossing times for the road first, basically the middle of the safe crossing times gives you low tide time. East Asia China.

At the top, the highest point in the area which the church was built over, is the Pilgrims invest themselves and surrender the clutter that normally surrounds their lives so that God can take centre stage while tourists avoid any form of personal commitment. The sight of the poles stretching across the sand and mud is one of the most iconic views in Northumberland and to walk the route away from the road and follow in the footsteps of our medieval ancestors is a wonderful experience.
