This is a light adventure story, fairly well paced, but a bit too interwoven in a Good Day Tears of the Jaguar Die. It strings together 'Mayan Digs Charles the 1st Britttish Witches Serbian Gun men Women grieving for dead teenage daughters Britttish secret agent men disguised as camera men Drugged archeologists Lost crown jewels I'm not making fun. He lived in Japan for several years and traveled extensively throughout southern and eastern Asia before moving to the United States for graduate school. The Spanish accents were off. What was the most interesting aspect of this story? A great read! This is a terrific 'beach' read or, um, 'hayride' read since the Summer will be over by the time the book is released.
