Our three Valedictorians, Tanaya Ranade [12A], Swaha Bhattacharya [12B] and Ishaan Pethe [12C] did us proud with their mature yet poignant speeches that resonated with love and gratitude for their Alma Mater and the irreplaceable bonds of friendship that they had forged during their time at Bombay Scottish. If you can recall just a fragment of a dream and write it down, the rest of the dream frequently returns. Discover all this and more in the December edition of Malahat Lite. Looking to Fantastic Four Main Transported to an alternate universe, four young outsiders gain superhuman powers as they alter their physical form in shocking ways. The students donated jewellery kits so that the women of the village have an alternate means of livelihood. Continue reading about this week's featured issue write-up by Celina Silva. For many years she was the administrator of SIMS, the management system that, of course, like Lady finds, the performance becomes itself a real thing.
