One of my favorite holiday specials, The Night the Animals Talked, is no longer broadcast on television. I decided to try a very human thing; bribe Jack and Jill with dog cookies. The dog was glad to offer this precious and unique gift, and protect the baby from the animals. The animals were filled with joy and praised God. While running through the streets of Bethlehem, they lose their speech one by one. Releasing her into a grove of live oaks between our house and a nearby canyon, Flicka reveled in her freedom. And though he was an ordinary dog, he was a very special watch dog. How would I use the animals were puzzled. Outside, the pigs are crowding the doorway struggling to look in.
