It will often lead to severe punishment for the marketer, ruining their chance of building something sustainable in the future. While you should, of course, use your keyword throughout your content, jamming your keyword into your text as much as possible will hurt your rankings rather than improve. We hope you will enjoy the content and we hope to hear and integrate your feedback via our Google support Forums.

You usually want to use your primary keyword in here because it gets bolded. Google will probably reward you on some level – at some point – if there is lots of unique text on all your pages. Google will therefore rank you higher based on that vote. I use these quality rating documents and the Google Webmaster Guidelines as the foundation of my audits for e-commerce sites.

Adventure-backed startup is willing to pay more than a small business, for instance, if you are helping visitors the come from Google – and not by just directing them to another website – you are probably doing one thing right at. They can generate a lot of traffic.
