Thompson was also an active campaigner and key figure in the ending of the Cold War. Book Description Penguin Books Ltd, Thompson was a Marxist and clearly believed in the importance of materialism, the labour theory of value, and the class struggle; and in this book his implied criticism of all the writers he tells us about is that they had not yet grasped the fundamental truths which Marx and Engels had yet to expound.

From the Inside Flap: "Thompson's book has been called controversial, but people who gathered to discuss the merits of expanding the right to vote were treated as traitors and were subject to the death penalty.
