David Fearn. Kevin Jr. Alexmarkeditasto-readApr12, Classics has been so long-lived a subject not least because of its Proteus-like ability to change and re-change its shape, and this latest extension of its boundaries is exciting, perhaps even liberating. Across its history, too, the British Museum has been celebrated for its classical antiquities, and has defined itself through its relationship to the art, literature, and culture of ancient Greece and Rome. For example, the slave community, comprising of African and oriental slave women form into a formidable oppositional force led by the Slave Leader.
