It takes courage, and some days more than you can muster. The prognosis for breast cancer depends, in large part, on the stage at the time of diagnosis.

I was literally fighting for my life. This book takes the author's journey through

A lot of the time, help comes in waves, everyone offers to cook dinner at once, and then three months into chemo, no one is. They had surgery and radiation, and then were assigned at random to receive either endocrine therapy alone, or endocrine therapy plus chemo.

However, the NEJM has not chosen to retract this paper. All I can handle is two at a time.
