Nothing to keep my interest, apart from the inexplicable magic. This is particularly galling because once these endless origin stories are out of the way, the story picks up steam rapidly and becomes much more compelling in the final 50 pages or so Thisstartedoutreallystrong,reallyintriguingstorylines,withgreatch Sweeney abruptly shows up, demanding his gold coin back from Shadow because he gave him the wrong coin. Obviously, they have some issues and there is some backstory that would help to understand them better, but the author chose not to share any of that with us.
