In her analysis of language planning in faith settings in London, Ana Souza is particularly interested in language use A Herança (Portuguese Edition) the religious practices of migrants and the impact that the language choices of the church have on the language development of migrant communities. We argue that both schools experience institutionalization in six stages and highlight that this process is not a linear one. We conclude by emphasising the importance of collaboration and of consciously approaching change in order to ensure innovations are successfully implemented. EditionLanguage.
