I reply that I write them here because it is desirable on account of the law suits which Diego Velasquez and the Bishop of Burgos and Arch- bishop of Rosano, whose name is Juan Rodriguez de Fonscca, brought against us. I call it to mind because I have been asked the question by a historian in Spain who records matters that have hap- pened, and this is the reason why the name was given it Before the Island of Cuba was conquered a ship with more than thirty Spanish men and two women on board was driven ashore on the coast near the river and port now called Matanzas.
