But this was not the region's vocation, at least Die letzte Expedition (German Edition) at that moment, when the big question was how to extract its inexhaustible natural resources, all of which could be exploited "without great physical effort" by relying on "entrepreneurial spirit, initiative, and prudence. Of the sicknesses presented by this population, the number of tropical diseases was quite limited, and this was taken as proof of the healthiness of the climate. SomereviewersintheBritishpresswerewillingtogivepraisewhereitwas. More than a decade later, in the s, Alfred Funkean expert in immigration affairs between Brazil and Germany, commended the urban initiatives undertaken by Pereira Passos. As the authors comment in the first pages of the chapter we are examining here, the expression of this "caboclo-ization" ranged from the adoption of superstitions and the "primitiveness" of the settlers' practices to their custom of going around barefoot. Home About Help Search.
